

POLICY NAME	Contraceptive Coverage Under Preventive Health	POLICY #	1910P
--------------------	--	-----------------	-------

Criteria

Coverage of FDA-Approved Prescription Contraceptives as Part of the Preventive Benefit for Non- Washington Plans

- ☐ At least one therapeutic equivalent version of each contraceptive product will be covered with no member cost share at an in-network pharmacy.
 - Therapeutic equivalents are approved by the FDA as safe and effective and contain identical amounts of the same active drug ingredient in the same dosage form and route of administration.
- ☐ Products covered with no member cost-share under the medical benefit
 - Nexplanon
 - IUDs with progestin and copper IUDs
- ☐ One type of contraceptive product is covered per month.
- ☐ Coverage may be for up to a 12 month supply of contraceptive at one time

Coverage of FDA-Approved Over-the-Counter Contraceptives as Part of the Preventive Benefit for Non-Washington Plans

- ☐ Over-the-counter contraceptives approved by the FDA (female condoms, sponges, and spermicides) will be covered with no member cost share at an in-network pharmacy.
- ☐ Coverage is limited to one package per month.
- ☐ One type of contraceptive product is covered per month.
- ☐ A prescription is required for coverage of over-the-counter contraceptive products under the Preventive Benefit.

Emergency Contraception for Non-Washington Plans

- ☐ Emergency contraceptives are covered at zero member cost share
 - Includes levonorgestrel and ulipristal acetate
 - Includes over-the-counter emergency contraceptive products
- ☐ Prescription is required for coverage under the Preventive Benefit

Coverage of Brand Name Contraceptives for Non-Washington Plans

- ☐ Unless otherwise stated in this policy, brand name contraceptives which have a generic equivalent are covered at the appropriate member cost share and with quantity restrictions according to member plan design.
- ☐ Provider may submit documentation of medical necessity in order for member to receive the References non-preferred product at zero cost share.
- ☐ If approved, coverage may be for up to a 12 month supply of contraceptive at one time.

Washington State-Based Plans Contraceptive Coverage as Part of the Preventive Benefit

- ☐ All FDA-approved contraceptives are covered under the Preventive Benefit with no utilization management.
 - Brand name contraceptive products are covered with no member cost share.
 - Documentation of medical necessity is not required for zero cost share coverage of brand name contraceptive products.
 - Coverage may be for up to a 12 month supply of contraceptive at one time.
- ☐ All FDA-approved over-the-counter contraceptives are covered on the Preventive Benefit.
 - A prescription is not required for zero cost share coverage of over-the-counter contraceptive products.
 - Male condoms are covered under the Preventive Benefit.
- ☐ Emergency contraceptives are covered at zero member cost share
 - Prescription is NOT required for coverage of emergency contraception under the Preventive Benefit