POLICY NAME Hyperhidrosis Topicals POLICY # 2688P

Criteria

Criteria for Coverage for Axillary Hyperhidrosis (excessive sweating of the underarms)
	Diagnosis of difficult to control underarm sweating present for > 1 year
	Age 9 years or older
	Sweating severely impacted the member's occupational and social activities
	Documented failure, intolerance, or contraindication to an adequate trial of topical aluminum chloride solution
	Documented failure, intolerance, or contraindication to therapy taken by mouth (systemic) • Anticholinergics • Beta blockers • Benzodiazepines

Exclusion Criteria – Any of the following prevents coverage

Qbrexza and Sofdra are only indicated for primary underarm sweating. Safety and efficacy has not been established for the treatment of palmar (hand), plantar (feet) or craniofacial (head/face) excessive sweating.